

ORAL HISTORY RECORDING AGREEMENT

Recordings of oral histories are integral to the British Library's intention to preserve the nation's memory. Your recorded interview will become part of the national collection cared for by the British Library, where it will be preserved as a permanent public reference resource for use in research, publication, education, lectures, broadcasting and internet access. The purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that your contribution is added to the collections of the British Library in strict accordance with your wishes.

This Agreement is made between The British Library Board, 96 Euston Road, London, NW1 2DB ("the Library") and you ("the Interviewee", "I"):
